Governor Chamberlain's Reply

Authentic Legal Evidence

Outrages Worse Than Stated

Admiral Attorney's Statement

The Result of Official Inquiry

Fiercer Than the Old Ku-Klux Klan

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 9.—Governor Chamberlain issued the following statement, in reply to the address published by the Democratic Executive Committee of South Carolina, in which the Democratic party is charged with the proclamation calling upon all unauthorized armed organizations to disperse and surrender their arms:

COLUMBIA, S. C., October 9, 1876.

To the People of the State:

An effort having been made by the official representatives of the Democratic party of this State to deny the facts and condition of affairs which were set forth in my recent letter to the chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, and upon which my proclamation of the 7th inst. I deem it my duty to set upon my official responsibility that I am at this moment in possession of authentic legal evidence to substantiate every fact and condition made by me in the documents above referred to; and further, that the Democratic party, in its social responsibility, that lawlessness, terrorism and violence, to which I have referred, are the result of the action of the Democratic party, and not of the action of the Union League, as stated in the address.

GENERAL B. F. BUTLER.

The Difference Between Him and the Bolter

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, 1876.

Sir: The New York Times of the 6th has a long article on the candidacy of Judge E. R. Hoar against Benjamin F. Butler. It justifies the Times, and largely from Mr. Hoar's own statements. It has read that letter, and finds nothing that it reminds me of so much as the description of the two men praying that can be found in the 18th chapter of Luke. Like the Pharisee who went into the temple, Judge Hoar is full of himself, and his own merits. He is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party. He is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party. He is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party.

ENOUGH TRUE, TRIED REPUBLICANS

IN THE COUNTRY TO FILL THE OFFICES UNDER A Republican administration, while Judge Hoar is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party. He is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party. He is a man of high standing in the law, and his name is a great asset to the Democratic party.

FROM THE BEST INFORMATION I COULD OBTAIN

IN THE TIME I WAS IN ALBANY, I FIX THE NUMBER OF WHITE MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000. I FIX THE NUMBER OF WHITE MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000. I FIX THE NUMBER OF WHITE MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000.

HE DID NOT, AS I AM CREDIBLY INFORMED, GO WITH SEVEN MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000. HE DID NOT, AS I AM CREDIBLY INFORMED, GO WITH SEVEN MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000. HE DID NOT, AS I AM CREDIBLY INFORMED, GO WITH SEVEN MEN OF THE CITY OF ALBANY, NEW YORK, AT ABOUT 10,000.

IN CONCLUSION, I HAVE ONLY TO SAY THAT THE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS IN ALBANY CITY RIVALS THE WORST DEMONSTRATIONS OF THE KU-KLUX KLAN.

Joint Discussion in Caroline County—An Order of Occasion.

BOWLING GREEN, VA., Oct. 9, 1876.

To the Editor of the National Republican:

Sir: This was an interesting day in our quiet town. The meetings of both parties had been thoroughly bulletined, and the sovereigns came out in force until the court-house green was a moving mass of men without regard to "race or color."

The best of feeling was manifested, and all were anxious to hear the speakers. The speakers were: Isaac H. Shields, Republican State canvasser-at-large; Dr. Charles S. Mills, Republican candidate for Congress, on the one hand; Hon. Gillies C. Walker, the Democratic candidate; ex-Mayor A. M. Kelley, Mr. Neely, of Accomac, and ex-Congressman Mr. Kelley opened the discussion, and was answered by our gallant Shields. Mr. Kelley made a splendid opportunity, and right manfully did Shields refute the wild statements of his opponent, and drove him to the wall at every point by the overwhelming force with which he showed a familiarity that did him party and cause credit, and enabled him to annihilate the reckless declarations of Kelley. But Shields was prompt with the names and places of a score of Democratic defectors who were present. He saw Kelley's every remark, and made a ringing speech, falling to answer Dr. Shields' overwhelming flood of facts. This was answered by all present, and until they were weary of the discussion, and the speakers were removed by the sheriff. This may be a very good thing for Mills. This last named citizen, a guileless citizen made a pleasant impression on Unsuccessful Efforts for a Conference.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Vienna says it is stated in diplomatic circles that the idea of a European conference may be considered abandoned. It is true that Russia has officially accepted the English proposal of a conference, but she did not expect success therefrom, as it would have been incumbent upon her to advocate in a conference proposals, perhaps, even more extensive than those which she had already made, and which have been rejected by Europe.

THE LATEST IDEA.

It is the latest idea that the ambassadors should draw up and superintend the execution of a programme of reforms on the basis of the Berlin memorandum.

REUTER TELEGRAM FROM BELGRADE.

Reuter telegrams from Belgrade say the struggle between the peace party under Foreign Minister Ristic and the Russian military party is becoming more acute. The Russian party is becoming more active, and the peace party is becoming more passive.

RUSSIA IS PREPARING.

For all contingencies. Arrangements have been made for the evacuation of the Russian army from the Balkans, and the Russian army is now in a state of readiness to move.
